About The Okura Tokyo:

Reprising the cherished Okura legacy, The Okura Tokyo opened its doors in 2019 as a fresh iteration of the former Hotel Okura Tokyo, meeting the contemporary needs of Japan's capital city with two complementary brands: The Okura Heritage Wing (140 rooms) and the Okura Prestige Tower (368 rooms). The former, a 17-story structure, recalls many of the most beloved spaces of its predecessor, continuing the Okura tradition of providing serene Japanese beauty and elegance in a world-class setting. The latter, rising to 41 stories, offers wonderful vistas of the city from its guest rooms, which begin on the 28th floor. Together the two accommodate a range of tastes while providing incomparable Japanese-style hospitality and the highest standard of comfort and luxury in their 508 guest rooms, five restaurants, two bars, and 19 banquet and meeting venues, among them the 2,000-square-meter Heian Room. Other facilities include Okura Fitness & Spa, the Chosho-an tea ceremony room, and the Okura Garden, a 13,000-square-meter oasis that is open to the public. The Okura Museum of Art, established in 1917 as the nation's first privately operated museum, anchors the landscaped entrance square. The first member of hotel of THE LEADING HOTELS OF THE WORLD® in Japan, and a member of Virtuoso®.

French Fine Dining | Nouvelle Epoque (56 seats / 1 private room):

Nouvelle Epoque, designed by Pritzker Prize awardee Yoshio Taniguchi, welcomes guests to a tranquil space where Japanese aesthetics offer a seamless transition from the elegant Okura lobby. Soft-white panels of alabaster glass, reminiscent of shoji partitions, bring rhythmic interest to the restaurant's long bank of windows. Lunch and dinner menus offer unique Japanese takes on French favorites, all with an emphasis on superlative ingredients and healthy dining matched to today's lifestyles and tastes.

Nouvelle Epoque

Japanese Fine Dining | Yamazato (82 seats / 5 private rooms):

You'll want to return, as separate counters for sushi, tempura, and omakase chef's recommendations make this venue three restaurants in one. Enjoy your meal along with views of the Japanese garden.

Yamazato

Okura Fitness & Spa:

In the private treatment rooms of the spa facility situated high above central Tokyo, we offer treatments incorporating a holistic approach to healing based on traditional Chinese practices balancing the five essential elements of wood, fire, earth, metal, and water, which are equally beneficial to both men and women.
