About Okura Spa

Throughout its history, Japan, as an island nation, has incorporated cultures from across the sea while appreciating the changes of the seasons wrought by its lush natural environment. This spirit is reflected in clothing, food, shelter, and other aspects of daily life in Japan, as well as annual events such as seasonal festivals marked in the Japanese lunar calendar. For Okura, which takes pride in offering distinctly Japanese hospitality, we believe the time spent at Okura Spa ought to be a moment to experience the Japanese sensibility of living as part of nature and generate new vitality. Okura Spa offers international visitors and urban dwellers a time to heal while experiencing Japan and nature.
